Financing Graduate Education

The financial aid program of the Graduate School of Arts and Science seeks to ensure that all academically qualified students have enough financial support to enable them to work toward their degree.

Awards include support for tuition and modest living expenses in the form of fellowships, teaching and research assistantships, and loans. Graduate Enrollment Services at the Graduate School and the NYU Office of Financial Aid offer additional financial options. The staff in each of these offices work closely with students to develop reasonable financial plans for completing a degree.

Instructions for Financial Aid Applicants

The application for admission is also the application for all Graduate School fellowships and assistantships for new students. No additional forms are required.

An application must be received by the specified deadline date to be eligible for Graduate School and departmental fellowships and assistantships. Refer to the departmental deadline dates in the GSAS Application Appendix: Programs, Requirements, and Deadlines. It is available on the Web in the GSAS Application Resource Center at gsas.nyu.edu.

The Graduate School encourages all U.S. citizens and permanent residents to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for all forms of federal and state aid, including the Federal Work-Study Program and various federal and private loan programs. NYU prefers that the FAFSA be submitted online by linking to fafsa.ed.gov (paper FAFSAs are available in January from the University Office of Financial Aid). The FAFSA should be filed after January 1, 2008, but preferably before March 1, 2008, for fall 2008 enrollment. Students should give permission for application data to be sent to New York University (enter institution code 002785 in the "Title IV Code" space).

Graduate School Fellowships and Assistantships

The Graduate School of Arts and Science offers an extensive program of full-funding support. Funding decisions, based solely on merit, are made by the departments with review by the dean. In addition, the school encourages students to apply for assistance through the many external organizations that provide funding for graduate study.

Some of the sources of funding available through the University and the Graduate School are listed below. Further information is available online at gsas.nyu.edu/page/grad\_financialaid.

THE HENRY M. MACCRACKEN PROGRAM, named in honor of the founder of the Graduate School of Arts and Science, provides support to most new doctoral students. The program offers up to a five-year package of full support, including a minimum $21,000 academic-year stipend, full tuition and fees, and an award for the cost of mandatory NYU health insurance. The award includes teaching experience for a minimum of two semesters. Each entering MacCracken doctoral student also receives a one-time $1,000 dean's supplementary fellowship grant for start-up research and educational expenses, such as books, academic supplies, and computer equipment. A number of these awards are enhanced by a dean's supplement reserved for historically underrepresented groups. Students who receive funding from an external agency also are awarded MacCracken funding, if necessary, to ensure they receive an award package with full funding.

TEACHING AND RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS, available in many departments, provide tuition remission, fees, an award for the cost of mandatory NYU health insurance, and a stipend. Duties include teaching, laboratory supervision, participation in faculty research, and other related activities. Assistantships are awarded on the basis of merit. Applicants should contact the department directly for information.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL'S TUITION INCENTIVE PROGRAM (TIP) encourages students to apply for external assistance and provides tuition support to recipients of external awards. Students receiving external awards of $13,000 or more from recognized, academic sources of funding outside of the University can apply for matching tuition points up to the amount of their outside award. Students receiving external awards of less than $13,000 may apply for matching tuition points up to 50 percent of the amount of the external award. Applications and specific details about TIP eligibility criteria can be obtained from Graduate Enrollment Services or at gsas.nyu.edu/page/grad\_financialaid\_gradfellowschips.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND AREA STUDIES (FLAS) FELLOWSHIPS provide tuition, fees, and a stipend to full-time graduate students who are studying a modern foreign language as part of their academic program in preparation for a career that will utilize their language studies. The fellowships are administered for the U.S. Department of Education by the three designated National Resource Centers at New York University. The centers and the eligible languages of the award are as follows: the Center for European and Mediterranean Studies (Dutch, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Irish, Italian, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish, and Swedish), the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (Portuguese [Brazil only] and Spanish [not Spain]), and the Hagop Kevorkian Center (Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, and Turkish). Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must enroll in a language class each semester. Students in all disciplines are eligible to apply; summer FLAS awards are also available.

Further information about FLAS awards can be found on our Web site as follows:

DEAN'S DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIPS provide annual stipends of $21,000 for outstanding graduate students who are within a year of completing their dissertation.

THE LOUIS LERNER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP provides tuition for a student in the field of American studies, American history, or American literature.

THE TORCH PRIZE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM was established as a pilot program in 2004 to improve understanding between the United States and other nations by promoting research outside the U.S. and focusing on what has helped to make America what it is today—its shared roots and common heritage with the rest of the globe. The fellowships provide one-year grants of $21,500 to exceptional doctoral students of any background who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents to conduct their final year of dissertation research abroad. Special consideration is given to students who wish to conduct research in their ancestral homelands or regions. Accompanying the grant is an honorarium for the foreign university, institution, or other organization hosting or otherwise assisting the Torch Prize Fellow's research. Following recommendations by the GSAS Honors and Awards Committee, fellowship decisions are made by the dean of the Graduate School in consultation with a program advisory committee. For more information about the program, go to gsas.nyu.edu/page/grad.life.fellowships.

THE A. OGDEN BUTLER FELLOWSHIP, founded by Charles Butler in 1890 in memory of his son, A. Ogden Butler, Class of 1853, provides a stipend to a student in classics or philosophy.

THE ELAINE BRODY FELLOWSHIP IN THE HUMANITIES, awarded to an outstanding graduate student, supports an approved dissertation proposal that requires extended research abroad. The fellowship entitles the recipient to a $21,000 stipend to cover expenses incurred during the research period.

THE MARGARET AND HERMAN SOKOL POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN THE SCIENCES, established in September 1991, carries a $10,000 award to support research for an outstanding graduate in the sciences. Students may choose any institution, including New York University, for the postdoctoral research.

THE JUNE FRIER ESSERMAN FELLOWSHIP provides an annual stipend of $21,000 to an outstanding graduate student in anthropology, psychology, or sociology who is within one year of completing his or her dissertation.

THE DOUGLAS AND KATHARINE FRYER THESIS FELLOWSHIP AWARDS, established by Martin and Sarah Fryer Leibowitz in memory of her father and mother, recognize annually the best dissertation proposals in psychology.

THE ROBERT HOLMES TRAVEL/RESEARCH AWARDS FOR AFRICAN SCHOLARSHIP, jointly administered by GSAS and NYU Africa House, may be used to support the research and study abroad of graduate students in the humanities and social sciences that will become an integral part of later sustained thesis or dissertation research. Student applicants must be nominated by their departments and should, within one year of the award, expect to complete remaining course work and other requirements (qualifying, comprehensive, and language exams). Exceptional master's students, proposing research contributing to their theses, are also eligible to apply. Recipients are expected to present their research as part of Africa House programming after their return. Two awards of $4,000 each are available.

LANE COOPER FELLOWSHIPS, established by the estate of Professor Lane Cooper, are awarded through competition and provide stipends for students within one year of completing their dissertation in the humanities, with a particular interest in classical and medieval languages, literature, and history.

THE PATRICIA DUNN LEHRMAN FELLOWSHIP is awarded to an outstanding advanced doctoral student writing a dissertation in the field of the arts in American society.

THE JAMES ARTHUR DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP, open to students in the Department of Physics whose dissertation concerns the measurement, meaning, or conceptualizing of time, provides an annual stipend of $21,000 to facilitate the completion of a dissertation.

THE DORIS OHLSEN TRAVEL/RESEARCH AWARDS FOR LATIN AMERICAN, CARIBBEAN, AND SPANISH SCHOLARSHIP may be used to support the research and study abroad of graduate students in the humanities and social sciences that will become an integral part of later sustained thesis or dissertation research. Doctoral degree candidates must be nominated by their departments and should, within one year of the award, expect to complete remaining course work and other requirements (qualifying, comprehensive, and language exams). Exceptional master's students, proposing research contributing to their theses, are also eligible to apply. Two awards of $2,500 each are available.

THE SHORTELL-HOLZER FELLOWSHIP provides an annual stipend of $21,000 to an outstanding graduate student in the humanities who is within one year of completing his or her dissertation.

THE NEW YORK UNIVERSITY GERMAN ACADEMIC EXCHANGE (DAAD) SCHOLARSHIP offers tuition remission for up to two students from Germany nominated by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). The program also entitles two GSAS students to compete nationally for DAAD grants and fellowships to support study and research in Germany.

A reciprocal grant agreement between New York University and the FREIE UNIVERSITÄT BERLIN supports up to two fellowships for a year of dissertation research, including a stipend for living expenses.

THE WILLIAM AND PEARL C. HELBEIN SCHOLARSHIP awards are made by the University, upon nomination by the deans of the various schools of the University, to students from middle-income families who have more than ordinary potential for leadership and service to their profession, their community, and their nation.

THE ENGBERG FELLOWSHIPS are awarded annually to incoming Ph.D. students. Five awards of $1,000 each are available. One fellow will specialize in organizational psychology.

THE PRESIDENT'S SERVICE AWARDS recognize those University student leaders who have distinguished themselves in volunteer community service in the support of humanitarian causes; in programming that enhances the intellectual, cultural, and social life of the University; or in leadership that directly impacts on the quality of student life at New York University. The awards are made by the president of the University.

THE NEW YORK UNIVERSITY OPPORTUNITY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM, established to recognize and recruit individuals of high academic ability to the graduate programs of the University, provides fellowship support for those students least represented in graduate education who demonstrate academic achievement, scholarship, and financial need.

THE REYNOLDS PROGRAM IN SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP offers 20 graduate fellowships each year University-wide. The program is a comprehensive initiative designed to equip the next generation of social entrepreneurial leaders and infrastructure developers and managers with the skills, resources, and networking opportunities needed to help solve society's most intractable problems in sustainable and scalable ways. The graduate fellowship provides up to $50,000 over two years and dedicated curricular and cocurricular activities. Visit the Reynolds Program Web site at www.nyu.edu/reynolds for more information.

Prizes and Research Awards

Since 1886, when Henry Mitchell MacCracken first established three fellowships for outstanding students, the Graduate School of Arts and Science has honored its exceptional scholars by awarding academic prizes and special research fellowships. Some awards are given for excellence in particular disciplines or for special kinds of research. Others are given for academic accomplishment, teaching excellence, scholarly contributions, and superior personal qualities.

The competitive process varies with each award. In some instances, a department or the dean of the Graduate School determines the recipient; in others, the Graduate School Honors and Awards Committee evaluates departmental nominations. These prizes and awards are made annually. Many are given during Convocation.

For more complete information about these awards, please contact the Office of Academic and Student Life at

One-half Fifth Avenue, the Office of the Dean at 6 Washington Square North, or the individual departments.

THE SAUTER AND DEAN'S PRE-DOCTORAL SUMMER FELLOWSHIPS may be used for visits to research sites such as archival resource facilities, laboratories, and fieldwork locations that will become an integral part of later sustained dissertation research. To qualify, a doctoral degree candidate must be nominated by the department chair and have no more than one year of course work and other requirements remaining. Sauter awards are $2,500; Dean's awards are $2,000 each.

THE DEAN'S STUDENT TRAVEL AWARDS help graduate students defray the cost of presenting their scholarly works at professional meetings and conferences. To be eligible for these $500 awards, students must be nominated by their department chair or director of graduate studies. Students are eligible for one award per academic year. Information is available on the Web at gsas.nyu.edu/page/grad\_travelgrant.

THE DEAN'S OUTSTANDING DISSERTATION AWARDS of $1,000, conferred by the dean at the Graduate School's Convocation, recognize outstanding Ph.D. dissertations in the humanities, sciences, and social sciences. Nominations are made by department chairs.

THE DEAN'S OUTSTANDING STUDENT TEACHING AWARDS honor outstanding classroom teaching by graduate students in the humanities, sciences, and social sciences. Based on teaching evaluations, departmental recommendations, and unsolicited written student testimonials, these $1,000 awards are presented at the Graduate School's Convocation. Nominations are made by department chairs.

Fellowships from outside sources, such as the DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE, the DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, the DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY, the DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY, the HERTZ FOUNDATION, and the NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION, are tenable at the department.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC
The Department of Music enhances MacCracken stipends through named awards from the GETTY FUND, the MILICENT JAMES FUND, the JONES FUND, the WILLIAM C. LANGLEY FUND, the SEGOVIA FUND, and the ALBERT AND HILDA WEINSTEIN FUND.

CENTER FOR NEURAL SCIENCE
THE HORACE W. GOLDSMITH FOUNDATION FELLOWSHIP is awarded annually to an outstanding student in neural science.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
THE FRANKEL FELLOWSHIP IN PHILOSOPHY.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICS
THE BRADLEY FELLOWSHIP provides support for outstanding graduate students.

THE H. B. EARHART FELLOWSHIP is awarded annually to support a promising graduate student.

THE PENFIELD FELLOWSHIP FOR STUDIES IN DIPLOMACY, INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, AND BELLES LETTRES, established by Frederick Courtland Penfield and Anne W. Penfield, provides a stipend to a dissertation-level student.

THE RICHARD N. SWIFT GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP is awarded to a full-time graduate student in the Department of Politics. The recipient is chosen by the department on the basis of "demonstrated academic merit and financial need, with preference given to qualified candidates with an expressed preference for studying international law, international relations, international organization, and/or United States foreign policy."

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY
THE MARTIN D. S. BRAINE FELLOWSHIP supports student research in cognitive and developmental psychology.

THE STUART W. COOK AWARD honors one of the founders of the social psychology program and an early and beloved chair of the department. It is presented annually to the doctoral student in social psychology who shows the greatest promise of making significant research contributions to the field.

THE PSYCHOLOGY ENGBERG FELLOWSHIP provides honorific and instrumental support for a first-year doctoral student.

THE DOUGLAS H. FRYER PLAQUE, established by former students of Professor Douglas Fryer, a member of the faculty from 1924 to 1958 and a pioneer in applied psychology, is awarded to a student who has demonstrated excellence in scholarship.

THE KATZELL SUMMER FELLOWSHIPS provide support to advanced graduate students for dissertation or predissertation research.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
THE DENNIS WRONG AWARD is for the best graduate student paper presented at a scholarly meeting or submitted for publication.

External Awards

Because it is not possible to offer full fellowship support to all graduate students and because of the prestige inherent in holding an award won through open competition, applicants are encouraged to consider major national and international fellowship opportunities. It is important that prospective graduate students explore every available source of funding for graduate study. Faculty advisers are frequently helpful sources of information for funding. Career services offices, deans of students, and offices of financial aid frequently have resource materials, books, and grant applications for a wide variety of funding sources, such as those described below. The Internet can also serve as a rich source of information on funding opportunities.

Students are encouraged to consult the GSAS resource page on grant making and fellowships at gsas.nyu.edu/page/grad.life.fellowships.

Master's and predoctoral students may apply for FULBRIGHT U.S. STUDENT PROGRAM FELLOWSHIPS for foreign research, funded by the U.S. government and administered by the Institute for International Education (IIE). Information and applications are available from
U.S. Student Programs

Alternative Funding Sources

FUNDING FOR MASTER'S PROGRAMS
Financial aid is available within certain departments and programs. Interested applicants should submit the application form by the financial aid deadline date. In addition, master's students are eligible for awards through the Graduate School's Tuition Incentive Program (TIP). For more specific information regarding eligibility and the availability of fellowships, applicants should call the director of graduate studies in the department or program, or contact Graduate Enrollment Services.

FUNDING FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
To secure a visa, international students must demonstrate that they have sufficient funding to complete the degree. International students who apply by the specified deadline and are admitted to the Graduate School are automatically considered for Graduate School fellowships and scholarships as well as for teaching and research assistantships. Most loan programs are restricted to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. However, New York University works with a variety of lenders to provide loan programs specifically tailored to the needs of international students. Visit our Web site frequently for the latest news on international student financing opportunities; the address is www.nyu.edu/financial.aid/international.html.

Many international students obtain support for their educational expenses from their government, a foundation, or a private agency. In many cases, these students are eligible to receive matching tuition funds through the Graduate School's Tuition Incentive Program. Applicants should contact Graduate Enrollment Services for specific details.

RESIDENTIAL EDUCATION ASSISTANTSHIPS

The Department of Residential Education annually offers a limited number of resident assistant (RA) and community education assistant (CEA) positions to students who wish to work with residential undergraduate and graduate students to promote interpersonal connections, community, and academic enhancements within our residence halls. The RA position is open to both undergraduate and graduate students, while the CEA position is limited to graduate students. Students in these positions serve as peers who assess, organize, and implement social and educational activities within and around the residence halls. In addition, as representatives of the Department of Residential Education, RAs and CEAs are sources of information, support, and referral and enforce housing and residential educational policy.

Both positions offer academic-year housing and a meal plan; the CEA position also includes a stipend. Candidates must be matriculated, full-time students by the semester in which they begin their assistantship. They must also be in good academic and behavioral standing and possess qualities that encourage the social and intellectual development of the students whom they serve. The selection process—which may require a candidate's physical presence in New York during the fall and/or spring semesters—begins each fall semester for the following academic year.

For information, contact the Department of Residential Education, New York University, 75 Third Avenue, Level C2, New York, NY 10003-5582; 212-998-4311; email: ResEd.RA.Selection@nyu.edu (RAs) or ResEd.CEA.Selection@nyu.edu (CEAs). You may find detailed information at www.nyu.edu/residential.education.

Other Financial Aid — Federal, State, and Private Programs

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered for financial aid, students must be officially admitted to NYU or matriculated in a degree program and making satisfactory academic progress toward degree requirements. Generally, University-administered federal and state financial aid programs are awarded to full-time students. Half-time students (fewer than 12 but at least 6 points of credit per semester) may be eligible for a Federal Stafford Student Loan or a Federal PLUS Loan, but they must also maintain satisfactory academic progress. A full description of the NYU academic progress requirements is available at www.nyu.edu/financial.aid/progress\_grad.html.

University-administered federal and state awards are not automatically renewed each year. Continuing students must submit a Renewal FAFSA each year by the NYU deadline. Renewal depends on the annual reevaluation of a student's need, the availability of funds, the successful completion of the previous year, and satisfactory progress toward the completion of degree requirements.

In order to be eligible for aid from federal and state government sources, students must be classified either as U.S. citizens or as eligible noncitizens (as defined by the U.S. Department of Education).

It is the student's responsibility to supply true, accurate, and complete information on the FAFSA and to notify the Office of Financial Aid immediately of any changes or corrections in his or her housing status or financial situation, including tuition remission benefits or outside grants, once the application has been made. Determination of financial need is also based on the number of courses for which the student registers. A change in registration therefore may necessitate an adjustment in financial aid.

NEW YORK STATE TUITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (TAP)

Legal residents of the state of New York who are enrolled in a full-time degree program of at least 12 credit points a term, or the equivalent, may be eligible for awards under this program. The Graduate School requires all eligible financial aid applicants to apply for this grant. The TAP award replaces a portion of the tuition fellowship amount for students who receive full tuition grants. Students applying for TAP must do so via a FAFSA application.

VETERANS BENEFITS

Various Department of Veterans Affairs programs provide educational benefits for sons, daughters, and spouses of deceased or permanently disabled veterans as well as for veterans and in-service personnel who served on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces after January 1, 1955. In these programs, the amount of benefits varies.

Since interpretation of regulations governing veterans benefits is subject to change, veterans and their dependents should keep in touch with the Department of Veterans Affairs. For additional information and assistance in completing the necessary forms, contact the Office of the University Registrar, 25 West Fourth Street, 1st Floor; 212-998-4800.

FEDERAL LOANS SUBSIDIZED STAFFORD STUDENT LOAN (SSL) PROGRAM

The Federal Subsidized Stafford Student Loan Program provides low-interest student loans using the capital of lending institutions and the administrative facilities of state agencies. These loans are made by independent banks or lending institutions and are generally insured by both the state and federal governments.

A graduate student may borrow up to a maximum of $8,500 per year with a total aggregate borrowing limit (including undergraduate loans) of $65,500. Within these limits, students may borrow up to the difference between the cost of education, the family contribution, and the total of all financial aid awards. For graduate students, family contribution is based on the incomes of the student and spouse (if married).

The subsidized Stafford Student Loan interest rate for all students is fixed at 6.8 percent. Interest does not accrue, however, nor does repayment begin, until six months after the borrower ceases to enroll at least half time. An insurance premium of up to 1 percent as well as an origination fee of up to 3 percent will generally be deducted from the loan funds.

Stafford loan disbursements are copayable to NYU and the student, and funds are applied first to any outstanding balance on the student's account.

UNSUBSIDIZED STAFFORD STUDENT LOAN PROGRAM

The Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Student Loan Program provides additional loan eligibility beyond any subsidized Stafford amounts. Students must first apply for the regular (subsidized) Stafford program, and if they meet eligibility criteria they will be automatically considered for the unsubsidized program. Terms and conditions are essentially the same as for the regular Stafford loan, except the federal government does not pay the interest on the unsubsidized loan while the student is in school. Students must begin to repay interest and principal 60 days after the first loan funds are issued. Payment of the principal may be deferred if the student is enrolled at least half time for the period of the loan. Also, the interest can be "capitalized" (added to the principal) if desired.

Graduate students may borrow up to $12,000 (a total of $20,500 in combined subsidized and unsubsidized Stafford loans) each academic year. The total amount of unsubsidized Stafford loan in any academic year may not exceed the cost of education minus the total family contribution and minus all other financial aid (including subsidized Stafford loans) received that year.

Stafford loan disbursements are copayable to NYU and the student, and funds are applied first to any outstanding balance on the student's account.

STAFFORD LOAN LIMITS

Generally, the total debt a graduate student can have outstanding from all Stafford loans combined is $138,500 (only $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans). The graduate debt limit includes any Stafford loans received for undergraduate study.

PLUS LOAN PROGRAM

The Federal PLUS Loan Program enables creditworthy parents of dependent students and qualifying independent graduate students to borrow up to an amount equal to the cost of education minus all other financial aid. No aggregate borrowing limits apply.

The annual interest rate is fixed at 8.5 percent. For this reason, eligible individuals are strongly encouraged to choose a federal PLUS loan before applying for a private educational loan. Repayment of the PLUS loan typically begins within 60 days after funds are disbursed and may extend up to 10 years. An origination fee of up to 3 percent will generally be deducted at the time of disbursement.

PRIVATE LOANS

A variety of private student loan programs are available to both U.S. and international students attending NYU. Created to supplement federal and institutional aid, they feature attractive terms and interest rates and all creditworthy families facing college expenses are eligible. There are no maximum income limits. Loans are made through banks, savings and loan organizations, and other lenders. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid or visit their Web site.

EMPLOYEE EDUCATION PLANS

Many companies pay all or part of the tuition of their employees under tuition refund plans. Employed students attending the University should ask their personnel officers or training directors about the existence of a company tuition plan. Students who receive tuition reimbursement and NYU employees who receive tuition remission from NYU must notify the Office of Financial Aid if they receive this benefit.

EMPLOYMENT

Students considering employment that would require a significant portion of their time should discuss their plans with a Graduate Enrollment Services counselor. Students on full-funding support must obtain the permission of a departmental representative and the dean of the Graduate School if they wish to secure employment beyond the requirements of their financial aid award.

Students who study at the Graduate School on temporary visas should fully understand the regulations concerning permissible employment under those visas. Before making plans for employment in the United States, international students should consult with the Office for International Students and Scholars, New York University, 561 La Guardia Place, New York, NY 10012-1402; 212-998-4720; e-mail: intl.students.scholars@nyu.edu.

For more information about University-wide graduate assistantships, including job posting information, see the Graduate Student Resource Guide at www.nyu.edu/academics/ga.html. Note: A graduate assistantship may affect eligibility for some forms of financial aid. Please contact the Office of Financial Aid if your award letter does not indicate your assistantship.

FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

Funded by the U.S. government and the University, this program supports a limited number of teaching assistantships. In addition, the Federal Work-Study Program supports a range of research and administrative employment opportunities within the University. Eligible students are U.S. citizens or permanent residents who show need for funding. To be eligible, a student must complete a FAFSA and demonstrate financial need.

Federal Work-Study jobs are secured through the University's Wasserman Center for Career Development, 133 East 13th Street, 2nd Floor; 212-998-4730.

NEW YORK CITY

One of the nation's largest urban areas, the city offers a wide variety of opportunities for part-time work. Many students gain significant experience in fields related to their research and study while they meet a portion of their educational expenses.

Tuition and Fees

The Graduate School of Arts and Science charges tuition on a per-point basis. For 2007-2008 the rate is $1,139 per point. A student must complete 72 points for the Ph.D. degree and 32-40 points for the master's degree, depending on the program. A full-time course load is 12 points per semester, 24 points per year.

The Board of Trustees of New York University reserves the right to alter this schedule of fees without notice. All fees must be paid per term at the time of registration in the Office of the Bursar, located at 25 West Fourth Street. Checks and drafts should be drawn to the order of New York University in the exact amount of tuition and fees required. In the case of overpayment, the balance is refunded upon request by filing a refund application in the Office of the Bursar.

A fee will be charged if payment is not made by the due date indicated on the student's statement.

The unpaid balance of a student's account is also subject to an interest charge of 12 percent per annum from the first day of class until payment is received.

Holders of New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) awards will be allowed credit toward their tuition fees in the amount of their entitlement, provided they are New York State residents enrolled full time and they attach the Award Certificate for the applicable term to their Statement of Account—Tuition and Fees.

Students who receive awards after registration will receive a check from the University after the New York State payment has been received by the Office of the Bursar and the Office of the University Registrar has confirmed eligibility.

Charges for full-time study for the 2007-2008 academic year are as follows:

DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN

The Deferred Payment Plan allows students to pay 50 percent of their net balance due for the current term on the payment due date and defer the remaining 50 percent until later in the semester. This plan is available to students who meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Matriculated and registered for 6 or more points.
- Without a previously unsatisfactory University credit record.

Interest (finance charges) will accrue beginning from the first day of class at 12 percent per annum (1 percent per month) on the unpaid balance. A $25.00 late fee will be assessed if deferred payments are made after the due date. For additional information, please contact the Office of the Bursar at 212-998-2806.

TUITIONPAY PLAN

TuitionPay (formerly called AMS) is a payment plan administered by Sallie-Mae. The plan is open to all NYU students with the exception of the SCPS noncredit division. This interest-free plan allows for all or a portion of a student's educational expenses (including tuition, fees, room, and board) to be paid in monthly installments.

The traditional University billing cycle consists of one large lump sum payment due at the beginning of each semester. TuitionPay is a budget plan that enables a family to spread payments over the course of the academic year. By enrolling in this plan, students can spread the fall semester tuition payment over a four-month period (June through September) and the spring semester tuition payment over another four-month period (November through February).

With this plan, students budget the cost of tuition and/or housing, after deducting any financial aid they will be receiving and/or any payments they have made directly to NYU.

A nonrefundable enrollment fee of $45.00 is required when applying for the fall/spring TuitionPay Plan. Students must enroll in both the fall and spring plans. Monthly statements will be mailed by TuitionPay, and all payments should be made directly to TuitionPay. For additional information, contact TuitionPay at 800-635-0120 or visit the NYU Bursar Web site at www.nyu.edu/bursar.

ARREARS POLICY

The University reserves the right to deny registration and withhold all information regarding the record of any student who is in arrears in the payment of tuition, fees, loans, or other charges (including charges for housing, dining, or other activities or services) for as long as any arrears remain.

DIPLOMA ARREARS POLICY

Diplomas of students in arrears will be held until their financial obligations to the University are fulfilled and they have been cleared by the Bursar. Graduates with a diploma hold may contact the Office of the Bursar at 212-998-2806 to clear arrears or to discuss their financial status at the University.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND OF TUITION

A refund of tuition will be made by the Office of the Bursar after presentation of a withdrawal (Change of Program) form signed by a departmental adviser and approved for refund by the dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Science through Graduate Enrollment Services, provided such withdrawal is filed within the scheduled refund period for the term, which is stated below. Withdrawal does not necessarily entitle the student to a refund of tuition paid or a cancellation of tuition still due.

An application for refund may be filed in person or by mail and must be made in writing on the Change of Program form, obtainable in the departmental offices of the school.

An official withdrawal must be filed if a course has been canceled and, in this case, the student is entitled to a refund of tuition and fees.

Ceasing to attend a class does not constitute official withdrawal, nor does notification to the instructor. A stop payment of a check presented for tuition does not constitute withdrawal, and it does not reduce the financial obligation to the University. The nonreturnable registration fee and a penalty fee of $20.00 for a stopped payment will be charged in addition to any tuition not canceled.

The date on which the Change of Program form is filed, not the last date of attendance in class, is considered the official date of the student's withdrawal. It is this date that serves as the basis for computing any refund granted the student.

The refund period (see schedule below) is defined as the first four calendar weeks of the term for which the application for withdrawal is filed. No application filed after the fourth week will be considered. The processing of refunds takes approximately two weeks.

REFUND SCHEDULE FOR FALL AND SPRING TERMS

This schedule is based on the total applicable charge for tuition excluding nonreturnable fees and deposits.

Withdrawal on or before the official opening date of the term 100%
(100% of tuition and fees)*

Withdrawal on the second day after the official opening date of the term through the end of the first calendar week 100%
(100% of tuition only)

The first calendar week consists of the first seven (7) calendar days beginning with the official opening date of the term. (Note: not the first day of the class meeting.)

Withdrawal within the second calendar week from the opening date of the term 70%

Withdrawal within the third calendar week from the opening date of the term 55%

Withdrawal within the fourth calendar week from the opening date of the term 25%

Withdrawal after completion of the fourth calendar week of the term NONE

**After the official opening date of the term, the registration and services fee is not returnable.*

Note: A student may not withdraw from a class the last three weeks of the fall or spring semester or the last three days of each summer session.

It should be noted that the registration and services fee is not returnable.

Exceptions to the published refund schedule may be appealed in writing to the dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Science through Graduate Enrollment Services and should be supported by appropriate documentation regarding the circumstances that warrant consideration of an exception, including approval by the departmental director of graduate studies.

Students who withdraw should review the "REFUNDS" pages on the Office of the Bursar Web site at www.nyu.edu/bursar.

Federal regulations require adjustments reducing financial aid if a student withdraws even after the NYU refund period. Financial aid amounts will be adjusted for students who withdraw through the ninth week of the semester and have received any federal grants or loans. This adjustment may result in the student's bill not being fully paid. NYU will bill the student for this difference. The student will be responsible for payment of this bill before returning to NYU and will remain responsible for payment even if he or she does not return to NYU.

Any semester during which a student is charged even a single dollar in tuition will be taken into account when calculating the student's progress toward his or her degree. This may require the student to make up credits before receiving any further aid. Students should review the "satisfactory academic progress" standard for their program so they do not jeopardize future semesters of aid (www.nyu.edu/financial.aid/progress\_grad.html).
