

GSAS Doctoral Graduation

Friday, May 18, 2018

11:00 am

NYU Skirball Center for the Performing Arts

Important Information for Graduates

1. What is the schedule for the day?

- 9:00 – 10:15 am Pre-Ceremony Reception for Graduates and Faculty (Silver Center, Hemmerdinger Hall)
- 10:15 – 10:45 am Processional Line Up
- 10:45 – 11:00 am Graduate Processional
- 11:00 am – 1:00 pm Convocation Ceremony (Skirball Center)

Do not lose your tickets. We will not have any replacement (or additional) tickets at the venue.**

2. Where and when should I arrive?

- You should plan to arrive at Silver Center at 9:00 am. Enter Silver Center through the ground floor lobby. As soon as you arrive, show your NYU ID to the security guards and enter the reception through Silverstein Lounge. The pre-ceremony reception will have celebratory beverages and light breakfast pastries. In order to participate in the ceremony, you must arrive at 10:15 am at the absolute latest.

3. Should I arrive wearing my attire?

- Yes, arrive in your robe and cap. Your hood should be folded over your arm until your name is called when you walk across the stage during the hooding ceremony.
- Try on your attire before the ceremony to ensure that it fits properly.

4. Will I be able to sit with my friends/cohort?

- Yes! Provided that you arrive early enough to check in and locate your friends. There will likely be two processional lines but we will do everything we can to ensure that you can sit with whomever you choose. Once you're in the auditorium, please do not save seats or leave any gaps between you and your neighbor.

5. I have special seating needs. How can I arrange this?

- Email gsas.convocations@nyu.edu with your request, describing the service you need. We will be able to provide specific details and instructions for you closer to the ceremony.

6. Who will hood me?

- If you have an advisor or faculty member who is attending the ceremony and you would like them to hood you, you should confirm this with them prior to the ceremony. Once your name is called, they will meet you at the front of the stage and you will hand them your hood.
 - Professor Ada Ferrer will be standing at the front of the stage to hood students who were not able to make arrangements with a faculty member from their department. Hand your hood to her once your name is called and she will hood you before you shake Dean Harper's hand.

Important Information for your Guests

1. Where and when should my guests arrive?

- Skirball ushers will not allow guests into the lower lobby until the house opens for seating at 10:00 am. We highly recommend that your guests arrive no earlier than 10:00 am. If they arrive earlier, they will stand in the ground floor lobby until 10:00 am.

2. Can my guests attend the pre-ceremony reception?

- Unfortunately, no. The pre-ceremony reception is for graduates and faculty only.

3. Will there be an Information Table? What services will it provide?

- Yes, it will be located near the Skirball entrance on the ground floor lobby. NYU staffers at the Information Table are there to trouble shoot problems. It is also a place where you can leave your guest ticket(s) in an envelope under a guest's name.

4. Is there a coat or bag check at Skirball?

- Yes. Guests are encouraged to check all bags, parcels, etc. at the coat check station located in the café on the lower lobby.

5. One of my guests has special needs. Where should they go for priority seating?

- First, tell them to speak with someone at the Information Table at the ground floor lobby. They will be directed to two designated NYU staff members greeting guests with special needs. These guests will be given priority access into the back of the hall at 9:45 am.

6. After the ceremony, where should I find my guests?

- The lobbies at Skirball can get very crowded after the ceremony. Please confirm a meeting spot with your guests prior to the ceremony, preferably outside of the building or across the street in Washington Square Park.
