NYUAD Dissertation Writing Fellowship in the Humanities and Social Sciences

The Dissertation Writing Fellowship is offered to enable graduate students to share in the energetic, multi-faceted research environment within the Humanities and Social Sciences Divisions at NYUAD.

NYUAD invites applications from NYU PhD students for the Fellowship, which will be conducted in residence at NYUAD. It is designed for students whose dissertations will be advanced works-in-progress during the Fellowship year. Fellows are expected to contribute to NYUAD's intellectual community through research and related activities, sharing their work with NYUAD faculty and students, and participating in scholarly networks engaged within the university.

The Dissertation Writing Fellowship is open to NYU PhD scholars working in all areas of the Humanities and Social Sciences, with successful applicants taking advantage of working for the year with an NYUAD faculty member in their field.

TO BE SIGNED BY ALL APPLICANTS:

I acknowledge that if awarded an NYUAD Dissertation Writing Fellowship for 2023-2024, I may not hold additional employment of more than 14 hours/week. An amount over 10 hours, up to a maximum of 14 hours, requires approval of the Chair of the NYUNY department and the NYUAD program head. I may not receive the full amount of this fellowship if I am, for the same year, receiving an external fellowship for full-time research and/or writing. I understand that violation of this provision may result in cancellation of the award.
